Program Overview

This international service learning course incorporates the concepts of partnership building, risk reduction, and health promotion in communities. Students actively explore international health issues specific to Guatemala and gain a better understanding of the nurse's role in delivery of care. In addition to class during the Spring 2013 semester, students will have the opportunity, during the Spring Break, to participate in international service learning in Guatemala, in partnership with Partners in Development, Inc.

Partners in Development (PID) mission:

Partners In Development, Inc. (PID) strives to help the extreme poor attain independence and whole life improvement. PID combines a variety of programs to achieve community transformation in places where hope is often lost in the cycle of poverty.

Housing and Accommodations

In Guatemala, students will stay in Hotel Mazatlan. Each room, holding 2-3 students, includes a private bath and shower. Students will have breakfast and dinner at Hotel Mazatlan.
