

THE SMART PARTY

AT ENDICOTT COLLEGE

REGISTERED PARTY UPDATE

WHY WOULD I REGISTER A PARTY?

1. Residence Life and Campus Safety enjoy working with students who register their party and will work with you ensure a successful night!
2. Campus Safety and Residence Life will help make sure that your homes are respected and are happy to help you if people show up that you want to leave.
3. If you have roommates that are under 21, they CAN stay during the party (however they cannot drink ...obviously, and they can't be a sober host)
4. You can get $50 to $150 reimbursement for food, water, decorations, etc. (not for alcohol or anything related to alcohol) - more information below
5. One successful house will get to have their own catered and staffed party at the pub with a DJ and a private VIP list of up to 75 people.

“SHOW ME THE MONEY”!

Each house can apply for reimbursement from $50 - $150 for 2 parties a year.

1. Only 1 person can submit the receipts for reimbursement.
2. Receipts CANNOT have alcohol ANYWHERE on them.
3. Parties cannot have ANY policy violations for receipts to be approved.
4. Creative or “themed” parties will increase your reimbursement.

HOW TO REGISTER A PARTY...

- ✓ Pick up the form in Residence Life or online under Residence Life/Important Policies
- ✓ Get ALL signatures and fill it out completely
- ✓ Drop off at Residence Life before Thursday at 5pm (if you want to have a Party on Friday) or Friday at 4pm if you want to have a Party on Saturday)
- ✓ 1 person from the house MUST meet with an RD when the form has been dropped off
- ✓ Purchase food and water for the party
- ✓ All housemates will meet with an RD before the party starts at their home
- ✓ Choose things to do during the party that are fun but DON'T focus on drinking

Be respectful when working with RD's and
Camus Safety

REMEMBER NOT TO...

- ✓ Get documented for violating policy
- ✓ Let anyone under 21 (unless they live with you) at the party
- ✓ Focus only on the alcohol
- ✓ Play drinking games
- ✓ Forget to have a good time

Theme Ideas

- ◆ Classy, Not Trashy
- ◆ 60's, 70's 80's...etc
- ◆ Major Bash (dress as the stereotype of your major)
- ◆ Fiesta Friday (Mexican Food)
- ◆ Famous Couples
- ◆ Stop Light (Red = Taken, Green = Single, Yellow = Maybe)
- ◆ Murder Mystery
- ◆ Good Guys vs. Bad Guys
- ◆ Movie Night (Arrange furniture as a theater and serve "movie food")

Themes take the pressure off of your party being just about the booze. It also ensures that people will be talking about YOUR party leading up to it and LONG after it!

Don't be "THAT GUY"!

Protect your reputation, be invited back, catch the eye of possible love interest:

1. Avoid behavior that might get your hosts in big trouble -such as sneaking in an underage drinker, being loud, rude or obnoxious, throwing bottles, etc.
2. Treat your hosts, their home and their other guests with respect.
3. Clean up after yourself.
4. Obey requests from hosts to quiet down, leave, or stop drinking.
5. Bring a snack to share. Everyone appreciates dessert or a simple appetizer.
6. Mingle, talk to new people-especially that shy one in the corner.

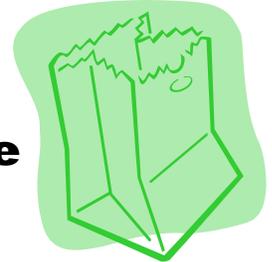

WHY WOULD I WANT TO BE A SOBER HOST?

EVERY sober host will be submitted into a raffle for free Senior Week Tickets, Graduation Perks, VIP Rewards, Free Tickets to events, and more... on a Monthly, Semester and Yearly Basis. The more times you are the host, the more chances to win!!

Best Shopping List before a party!

1. GOOD FOOD! Crackers, cheese & pepperoni are much classier than chips thrown in a bowl and it's more substantial.
2. Decorations turn your house from a hangout to a party!
3. TOILET PAPER!!!!
4. Trash bags - ideally with one for recycle so that you get that 5 cents a can!
5. Cleaning products - including Lysol to spray on all your furniture. Don't forget those toilet wands with cleaner already on them so your hands don't have to go near that! GROSS!!!
