

Gloucester Daily Times

Published: April 15, 2010 05:45 am

Endicott's night of jazz

Endicott College hosts its third annual intercollegiate jazz concert featuring five bands from area colleges.

Performances by talented student-musicians will reach general music lovers and jazz enthusiasts alike. The bands hail from Endicott College, Brian Fitzpatrick director; Gordon College, David Rox, director; Salem State College, Tom Palance, director; Waring School, Garth Retallack, director, and Beverly High School, Ray Novack, director.

The bands perform tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the Rose Performance Hall, Endicott College, 376 Hale St., Beverly.

Tickets are $5 general admission and free with identification from Endicott College, Gordon College, Salem State, Beverly High School, and the Waring School.

Tickets can be purchased online at www.endicott.edu/centerforthearts or by calling the box office at 978-998-7700.