

ENDICOTT COLLEGE – Undergraduate School
INDEPENDENT STUDY FORM for _____ SEMESTER

An Independent Study is a student-initiated project developed with a faculty/chairperson/dean who agrees to supervise and grade the work. It will have a course prefix that is relevant to the subject, a course numbering level that is reflective of the level of work followed by '99', and a short unique title. Example – ENG299 01 Ind St: Melville & Billy Budd

Please Note: This form is due by the last day of the Drop/Add period. The form must be typed.

NAME: _____ STUDENT ID: _____

COURSE NUMBER: _____ NUMBER OF CREDITS: _____

BEGIN DATE: _____ END DATE: _____

COURSE TITLE (15 characters)_____

Course Description (A brief description of the topic(s) to be covered in the course)

Course Objectives (Please list at least 3 objectives using the model below)

At the completion of this course the student should be able to:

(Ex: Understand and apply current theories in the field of cultural studies)

1.

2.

3.

Topical Outline including a calendar of assignments and meeting dates.

Teaching and Learning Strategies

Evaluation Methods (how will the student be evaluated? List evaluation methods and give weight for each method)

Required Readings (Please list readings that will be completed during the semester)

Signature of Student

Signature of Faculty Member

Signature of Chair

Signature of Dean

Signature of Vice President, Dean of the Undergraduate College

The student, faculty member and advisor need copies of this form. This original is used in place of a normal Registration Form or Drop/Add Form by the Registrar's Office.