Commencement Speaker

Doctor of Humane Letters

Soledad O'Brien

Award-winning journalist, documentarian, and media entrepreneur, Soledad O'Brien is known for her decades-long career across broadcast, documentary film, and public affairs media. She began her career in Boston as an associate producer and news writer for WBZ-TV before rising to prominence at CNN, where she hosted American Morning and Starting Point, among other programs. In 2013, O'Brien joined Real Sports with Bryant Gumbel on HBO as a correspondent.

Her recent work includes executive producing the Peabody Award-winning documentary The Rebellious Life of Rosa Parks and the acclaimed series Black and Missing, which received Independent Spirit and NAACP awards.

Her documentaries, The Devil Is Busy and Netflix's The Perfect Neighbor, earned Best Director honors at the Sundance Film Festival, and in 2025, both films were nominated for two Academy Awards. Along with the late director Rob Reiner, she co-hosted the iHeart podcast Who Killed JFK and is the author of the memoir The Next Big Story.

In addition to her journalism and storytelling work, O'Brien is a committed advocate for educational access. Through the PowHERful Foundation, which she runs with her husband, she has helped dozens of young women get to and through college and connected thousands more with mentorship and resources nationwide.

O'Brien's work has been recognized with numerous honors, including multiple Emmy Awards, Peabody Awards, Gracie Awards, Cine Awards, Telly Awards, and an Alfred I. duPont Award. In 2023, she was inducted into the Broadcast and Cable Hall of Fame. She has also testified before Congress on media disinformation and remains an influential public voice through her writing, speaking, podcasts, and social media platforms.

Awards & Recognitions

FACULTY AWARDS

Academic Excellence Award

The Academic Excellence Award recognizes an exemplary member of the faculty for outstanding teaching, scholarship, and service. The recipient is nominated by faculty and staff and voted on by the Deans' Council.

Alyssa Czarnecki, Associate Professor, School of Sport Science

Faculty of the Year Award

The Faculty of the Year Award recognizes memorable teaching by a full-time member of the Endicott College faculty. It is voted on by the senior class and given by the College Awards Committee.

Ashley Appleby, Assistant Professor, Criminal Justice, School of Social Sciences, Communication, & Humanities

Adjunct Teaching Excellence Award

The Adjunct Teaching Excellence Award recognizes excellence in teaching by Endicott College adjunct faculty, including those who teach in the traditional undergraduate, Van Loan Division, and graduate programs. It is voted on by the Deans' Council and given by the College Awards Committee.

Gretchen Warland, Adjunct Professor, School of Sport Science

Founder's Medallion

The Founder's Medallion Award recognizes the graduating senior with the highest cumulative GPA. This student has consistently demonstrated a commitment to learning, inquiry, and academic excellence.

President's Awards

The President's Awards recognize graduating students who exemplify Endicott College ideals. Because of their engagement both academically and socially, these students have had a significant impact on the College. The recipients of the President's Award have represented themselves with integrity, assumed responsibility, and enriched, by their actions, the experience of their peers, faculty, and administrators.

Academic Awards

Academic Awards recognize graduating students who have, by their engagement, contributed to their individual school in their respective majors. Recipients are selected based on both cumulative GPA and contributions to their discipline, as determined by a vote of each school's faculty.

Academic Regalia

Academic Costumes

The origins of academic dress date back to the 12th and 13th centuries, when universities were taking form. The ordinary dress of the scholar, whether student or teacher, was the dress of a cleric. With few exceptions, the medieval scholar had taken at least minor orders and made certain vows. In the days of Henry VIII of England, Oxford and Cambridge first began prescribing a definite academic dress and made it a matter of university control, even to the extent of its minor details.

Gowns

The gown for the bachelor's degree has squared sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve, which is open at the wrist, like the others. The sleeve base hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear of its oblong shape is square-cut, and the front has an arc cutaway. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves. Gowns for bachelor's or master's degrees are untrimmed. For the doctoral degree, the gown is faced with velvet down the front; three bars of velvet are used across the sleeves. These facings and crossbars may be of velvet of the color distinctive of the disciplines to which the degree pertains, thus agreeing in color with the binding or edging of the hood appropriate to the particular doctoral degree in every instance.

Hoods

The length of the hood worn for the bachelor's degree must be three feet; for the master's degree, three and one-half feet; and for the doctoral degree, four feet. The hood worn for the doctoral degree shall have panels only on the sides. The hoods are lined with the official colors of the college or university conferring the degree; more than one color is shown by dividing the field color in various ways. The binding or edging of the hood is to be velvet or velveteen, two inches, three inches, and five inches wide for the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees, respectively; the color should be indicative of the subject to which the degree pertains.

Colors

Colors associated with the different disciplines are as follows:

- Arts, Letters, Humanities — White
- Commerce, Accountancy, Business — Drab
- Education — Light Blue
- Fine Arts — Brown
- Law — Purple
- Nursing — Peach
- Science — Golden Yellow
- Doctor of Education — Light Blue
- Doctor of Philosophy — Dark Blue

*Adapted in part from American Universities and Colleges, 15th Edition, American Council on Education, 1997.

Caps

Black mortarboards are generally recommended to have a long tassel fastened only at the center of the cap, allowing it to fall naturally. The tassel should be black or the color appropriate to the subject, with the exception of the doctoral cap, which may feature a gold tassel.

Student-Athlete Cords

The navy and green cord represents a distinguished group of graduating students who have proudly competed as intercollegiate student-athletes at Endicott. These individuals demonstrate exceptional dedication, balancing the demands of rigorous academics with the physical and mental challenges of collegiate athletics while also committing their time to community service initiatives. Their ability to balance athletics, academics, and service to others, alongside internships and, for many, employment, reflects a remarkable level of commitment and responsibility. These student-athletes exemplify discipline, resilience, and a strong work ethic. Their efforts have contributed to Endicott's success on the regional and national stage, and this cord serves as a symbol of their commitment, perseverance, and pride in Endicott College Athletics.

About Endicott College

Since its founding in 1939, Endicott College has remained committed to the belief that education should be both academic and practical—grounded in theory, but brought to life through experience. As one of the first colleges in the nation to require three internships for every student, Endicott has long championed the value of experiential learning. That legacy lives on today through the Endicott Experiential Edge. Our pioneering internship model, global study and work abroad program, and outstanding career resources equip students with essential experiences that give them a head start on their careers and an edge in the competitive job market. This foundational program prepares students not just for a career, but for a life of purpose. From its earliest days in a single building on the North Shore, Endicott has grown into a vibrant, 235-acre campus with more than 4,500 students across undergraduate and graduate programs. Even as the College evolves, it remains grounded in its mission: to inspire leadership through transformational learning. That mission has never been more vital—and never more evident—than in the graduates we celebrate today.

† Denotes participation in Endicott Scholars, the College’s honors program.

△ Denotes membership in Mortar Board, the national honor society with which the College is affiliated.

* Denotes participation in Leadership Scholars, the College’s leadership honors program.

Senior Class Gift donors are signified by the blue and green tassel on their caps.

Students wearing a red, white, and blue cord are providing or have provided military service to the U.S. or will commission upon graduation.

After the Ceremony

Out of respect to all graduates and attendees, please remain seated until all faculty and graduates have processed from the field. Then proceed to meet your graduate at the designated meeting spot for each school. Everyone must leave the campus by 3 p.m. Thank you.
